

Neighbourhood Watch in Ku-ring-gai and Hornsby eNewsletter #558 - 21 June 2022

This weekly eNewsletter is compiled by Neighbourhood Watch volunteers as a service for residents in Ku-ring-gai and Hornsby council areas. The eNewsletter is a new type of Neighbourhood Watch; utilising the available technology to keep people more connected and up-to-date with local crime and safety issues.

The eNewsletter includes a selection of posts from our local police at the Ku-ring-gai PAC Facebook page (also known as 'eyewatch'), primarily for those not familiar with Facebook. We add anything interesting from a Neighbourhood Watch point-of-view - this could be a local newspaper article, a roadwork warning, crime prevention tip(s), an upcoming Neighbourhood Watch meeting, Q&As from residents, or an item from another Police command ("Crooks know no boundaries!").

🚗 Have you seen anything we should share with the community? Please email our NHW in Ku-ring-gai & Hornsby volunteers. We do value your contributions and thank you for your support.

🚗 Please feel free to share/forward this eNewsletter with your friends, family, colleagues and neighbours.

21 June, from the Hornsby Shire Historical Society: A fascinating read and a little more of our local history.

135 years to this day the 21st June 1887, 6 people died after a runaway train travelling from Hornsby to the Hawkesbury river Station crashed at the Station. Had it not been for the heroic actions of a porter, Patrick Proctor, the tragedy may well have been much worse.

15 June, from Ku-ring-gai command: 15th June 2022 is World Elder Abuse Awareness Day

Did you know that two thirds of older people don't seek help when they are abused? Elder abuse often remains hidden, with the most frequent action taken to stop the abuse involving the victim is them speaking directly to the abuser. Perpetrators of elder abuse are often family members, mostly adult children, but they can also be friends, neighbour's and acquaintances.

21 June, from NHW Ku-ring-gai & Hornsby: We received the following request from a resident:

Re: Intersection of Amaroo Ave and Pacific Highway, Mt Colah

Good morning, was just wondering if an article could be put in the NHW eNewsletter about the above intersection and the correct road rules regarding the waiting lanes. The amount of road rage incidents I have witnessed is ridiculous. Perhaps a friendly reminder might be of use?

Resident of area, thanks.

Hi, Concern is coming out of Amaroo and heading south, However, the whole intersection needs to be looked at with the bakery and 2 preschools, dangerous.

Our response:

We looked at the intersection, researched the problems and also asked the advice from the local Traffic Officer at Hornsby police station.

The waiting lanes that were mentioned aren't marked on the Amaroo road. Amaroo is a locally maintained road, looked after by Hornsby Shire council. Maybe you could request that painted lane markings showing two lanes could be considered at the exit of Amaroo – one lane for left turn only, and one lane for right turn only? We are not sure whether the road is wide enough. It would also possibly require local traffic signs explaining the lanes.

Any changes requested usually require vehicle and crash statistics to justify any change before anything will be done. The process is known to be slow.

Address an email to the Hornsby Council Local Traffic Committee (LTC), outlining your concerns, and suggesting a solution to the issue that you would be happy with.

(The NSW Government and Transport for NSW are responsible for the Pacific Highway.)

Information about the Local Traffic Committee can be found here.

“The purpose of the LTC is to provide technical advice on traffic control matters on local roads to Council. That advice must be taken into consideration before Council chooses to exercise its delegation to control traffic on local roads. Where Council proposes to exercise that delegation, a report is prepared and considered by the members of the LTC.

Under the terms of the RMS delegation the Committee has no decision making powers and no jurisdiction on state roads or selected facilities such as speed limits, signalised intersections or marked foot crossings.”

Merging: Road Rules Handbook page 132 here. Changing lanes when a lane ends

When the lane you're driving in is ending and you need to cross a broken line to move into another lane, you must give way to vehicles already in that lane – for example, when you're joining a motorway. Slow down and look for a suitable gap so you can change lanes safely. If a vehicle is moving into your lane, you should leave a suitable gap. When a car is crossing a broken line to change into another lane (Car A), it must give way to vehicles already in that lane (Car B).

Road Rage: Road Rules Handbook page 70 Sharing with other road users

Everyone who uses the roads to drive, ride or walk has a responsibility to share the road with others. Be aware of who you're sharing the road with and how you can take care around them. Allow enough time to stop safely for pedestrians. Give other vehicles enough room to stop and turn. Keep an eye out for bicycle and motorcycle riders.

If somebody does something that startles you, or is aggressive, stay calm. You must not respond in a threatening or aggressive manner. This kind of behaviour, often called 'road rage', is dangerous and illegal. By respecting other road users, you can help make the roads safer for everyone 21 June, from NSW Health: Vapes can contain the same harmful chemicals found in weedkiller, nail polish remover, bug spray and cleaning products.

They just don't put it on the pack. The take-up of vaping by young people is increasing. Research shows that 1 in 3 young people 16 – 24 years have vaped. The 'Do you know what you're vaping?' campaign is aimed at young people aged 14-17 years who should not be vaping or smoking. Vapes are not safe. Do you know what they're vaping?

FAQ #26: WHAT IS A BITUMEN BANDIT?

Neighbourhood Watch Ku-ring-gai & Hornsby has researched several new Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) to upload to our website. This one advises about 'Bitumen Bandits'. More to come in the next few weeks...

Have you a question that we could answer? Let us share it with the community. Please email us at: NHWKuringgaiHornsby@gmail.com

Frequently Asked Questions #26

WHAT IS A 'BITUMEN BANDIT'?

'Bitumen bandits' are bogus tradespeople who rip-off unsuspecting and vulnerable consumers, by peddling bitumen-laying services for a supposed "substantial discount". They use misleading and deceptive conduct. The scam starts when someone knocks on your door and tells you they have asphalt or bitumen leftover from a "nearby job" and offer to sell it to you at "a heavily reduced cost". Consumers are forced to comply because if the work isn't finished, they're unable to use their driveway. Regardless of how solid the offer seems, ill-informed bitumen layers often leave consumers out of pocket.

- they may ask for a deposit and simply never return to do the work, or
- they do such a substandard job with watered down bitumen, it may cost you a lot more money to fix the job, or
- they do (more) damage, or
- they may initially quote a low cost, but then a much higher payment is demanded during the work for it to be completed.

A licence is required for:

- residential building work valued at more than $2000 (inc GST) in labour and materials
- all specialist work regardless of cost.

Specialist work includes electrical wiring, plumbing, drainage and gas-fitting work and air conditioning and refrigeration work (except plug-in appliances).

Check any contractor or tradesperson is qualified and/or licensed to do the job by using the NSW Fair Trading Home Building Licence Check online tool: <https://www.fairtrading.nsw.gov.au/help-centre/online-tools/home-building-licence-check>.

The Licence Check will tell you of any cancellations, suspensions, formal cautions, penalty infringement notices, non-compliance or public warnings issued.

20 June, from Crime Stoppers NSW: 10 MOST MISUNDERSTOOD ROAD RULES – #5 KEEPING LEFT

On multi-lane roads with a speed limit of more than 80km/h, motorists must not drive in the right-hand lane unless they are:

- ➡ overtaking
- ➡ turning right or making a U-turn
- ➡ avoiding an obstacle
- ➡ driving in congested traffic
- ➡ driving in a special purpose lane or if there is a Left Lane Must Turn Left sign or a left traffic arrow and the driver is not turning left.

20 June, from the Australian Federal Police (AFP): The AFP-led Australian Centre to Counter Child Exploitation (ACCCE) is warning that Australia is seeing a global trend in the crime of sexual extortion, with a spike in the number of Australian boys being preyed on by international sex offenders.

These offenders are grooming minors into producing explicit images and then extorting them for money. Tactics can vary, but child sex offenders commonly pose as girls and befriend boys via social media platforms, image-sharing apps or online games. Once the pair connected, the 'girl' would request they communicate privately and engage in sexualised conversations before sending explicit images of her fake self, often sourced from a victim of previous offending. The boy would then be asked to send nude images or videos in return.

3. Get the right seat back angle.

Tip #2. CONSIDER WHAT YOU WEAR – dark colours may not be seen by drivers. Wear bright, lighter-coloured clothing when walking from dusk onwards or in reduced visibility conditions. Just because you can see a car (or their lights) doesn't mean the driver can see you, or will stop for you. The driver may have different priorities than you today. Or their vision may be affected by the sun. Consider reflective clothing and/or shoes with reflective strips. It is possible to buy reflective strips and armbands.

Tip #3. PUT AWAY YOUR PHONE. Unplug your earphones. Give all senses to the job of keeping you safe. Concentrate whilst you are on that road. Pause any involved conversations with those near you. 100% concentration please!

Tip #18. AVOID WALKING ON THE ROAD. Use a nature strip, or footpath if available. If you must use the road, walk FACING the oncoming traffic, and as close to the side of the road as possible.

Tip #19. AT NIGHT USE A TORCH. Try and keep it pointing down and away from drivers, so as not to blind them.
